

Student Code of Conduct

Summit University operates under the premise of trust and good will for all. We also follow high standards of integrity, fairness and confidentiality and in our personal, academic, and professional situations and roles.

To promote a pleasant and effective learning environment, students are expected to conduct themselves ethically and honestly, and to demonstrate mutual respect and courtesy in their conversation and behavior. They therefore accept an obligation to abide by basic standards of consideration and good will towards faculty, staff and fellow students. They also agree to honor the rules of academic integrity as described in the Academic Integrity Guidelines.
